Child And Family Assessment In Social Work Practice

Sally Holland

Each new assessment will be a 'child in need statutory child and family' assessment and take place between the allocated social worker and practice supervisor/manager. This aligns with the principles outlined in Children in Child Welfare: Comprehensive Functional Family by Sally Holland. Child and family assessment in social work practice is a foundational aspect of children's social work.