Historic Places: Special Investigation South-western Victoria Proposed Recommendations

Land Conservation Council Vic.

January 1997 Historic places special investigation: south-western Victoria. The Special Investigations Unit SIU or the Unit is the civilian oversight. 1 Overview 2 History 3 Notification 4 The investigation 5 Investigators Ontario is the first province to have such a civilian oversight agency in place. The Task Force’s report recommended changes in the law on the use of force by the police. An Archaeology of Australia Since 1788 - Google Books Result Digging Up the Past - Google Books Result As If for a Thousand Years - Google Books Result As the area of investigation overlapped the initial West RFA region, cultural heritage. categorised places for potential significance and proposed places of national, state. The south-western Victoria study of historic places LCC 1996 a,b,c.. Broad regional studies LCC Special Investigation, LCC consultants’ reports Cultural Heritage Management - Department of the Environment