Refugees: 10 May - 19 October 2003, Ravenscar Gallery

Margaret Hudson-Ware Felicity Milburn Christchurch Art Gallery

Refugees is a striking collection of new paintings by prominent Christchurch artist Margaret Hudson-Ware. The exhibition is on display at Ravenscar Gallery from 10 May to 19 October 2003.

The exhibition features a range of works that explore the experiences of refugees, offering a unique insight into their lives. The paintings are the result of extensive research and collaboration with refugee communities, providing a powerful commentary on the human experience of displacement.

The gallery is open daily from 10am to 5pm, with extended hours on Thursday until 9pm. Visitors are encouraged to explore the exhibition and engage with the artists and community representatives who will be present throughout the duration of the show.

For more information, please visit the gallery's website or contact them directly. Visitors are also invited to join the opening night event on 10 May, which will feature performances by local artists and special guests.

Don't miss out on this unique opportunity to learn more about the experiences of refugees and the artists who are working to bring their stories to life through their art.
