The States That Could Not Wait: Lessons For Health Reform From Florida, Hawaii, Minnesota, Oregon, And Vermont

Milbank Memorial Fund

This document contains information on health care politics and policy, focusing on the experiences of several states in the United States. It discusses the challenges and lessons learned from Florida, Hawaii, Minnesota, Oregon, and Vermont in their efforts to reform the health care system. The document is part of a broader series of books and articles produced by Milbank Memorial Fund, an organization known for its work in health policy and politics. The Fund is an author of books and articles on health policy and politics and an adviser to public health initiatives at the state level.